

Aashirvachan Ceremony

This auspicious event was held on 4th February 2011 in the White House Court just after the morning assembly. As the name suggests 'Aashirvachan', the main purpose of this event was to bless the class X students and offer them valuable advice for the upcoming board examinations. The Principal of our school, Mr. A.K. Das gave his valuable time to address the students and inspire them to achieve great heights. The Vice-Principal, Mr. Anant V.D. Thapliyal, Co-ordinator-Middle School, Mr. Lalit Mohan Sharma, the Headmistress, Mrs. Arti Kohli and Mrs. Anita Dutta including other teachers were equally involved in offering a piece of advice each. The occasion came to an end by presenting the students with stationery as a token of luck.
