

Deepotsav Celebration for Class XII on February 2012.

Much awaited annual custom of showering blessings on the outgoing batch – Deepotsav, marked by the attendant sombreness was observed by lighting of a thousand Earthen Lamps and presenting stoles, tying of kalavas and smearing of vermillion on the foreheads of 140 students, who take their CBSE class XII coming March, here at the White House Court on 11th February 2012.

As per the convention, the blessing ceremony saw recounting of experiences during their stay at The Asian School by a number of outgoing students, who delivered their speeches with praiseworthy élan and aplomb. All of them betrayed themselves and shared, with everyone present, their memorable and joyous moments, besides the pranks within and without the classrooms.

On the occasion, with the token exchange of Earthen lamps, the new prefectorial body was also announced. Saalim Shamsi XIC and Aryana Khan XIF were entrusted with the responsibilities of the Head Boy and the Head Girl respectively.

This year's Deepotsav Ceremony commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the Chief Guest Mrs Geeta Das.

Speaking on the occasion Mr AK Das, Principal observed that the class XII students need spare no effort to be worthy of Ambassadors of The Asian School.

Mr Anant VD Thapliyal speaking of the importance of discipline and a responsible approach towards studies observed that the outgoing students are always the ambassadors of an institution, hence the urgency of faring better in the forthcoming exams.

Mr Gaganjyot Singh, Director, Mr Mukesh Nangia, Co-ordinator, Middle School, Mrs Priya Sethi, Headmistress, as also the entire teaching staff attended the function.

The programme was jointly compered by Simranjeet Sethi and Aryana Khan.

---