

ON TEACHERS DAY THE ASIANITES TAKE PLEDGE TO SAVE THE HIMALAYAS

On the pleasant morning of September 5, 2018 the students and the staff of The Asian School, Dehradun gathered in the White House Court to celebrate Teachers' Day.

The celebrated teacher and the second President of India Dr. S. Radhakrishnan was remembered on the occasion. In the wake of the floods that wrought havoc in Kerala the school had decided to make it a somber day without the usual gaiety and verve.

The students gave a number of speeches and recited poems as tribute to their teachers but the colourful programme depicting the life of Lord Krishna – his playfulness and his role as the eternal guide of mankind stole everyone's heart. This was the same programme that had been planned for 'Janamashtami' but was postponed due to heavy rainfall.

The programme ended with a pledge, taken by approximately 1500 students and the faculty, to save Himalayas. This was a part of the initiative by the Hindustan Times, a campaign to save Himalayas – 'Save Himalayas – Himalaya Bachao, Polythene Hatao'.

Present on the occasion were Vice President, Mr. Madanjeet Juneja, The Principal, Mr. A. K. Das, Head Middle School, Mr. Mukesh Nangia & Head Mistress, Ms. Kalpana Grover. The programme was compered by the Head Girl Manisha Gupta and was attended by the staff and the students of The Asian School.
