SPIC MACAY STAGES FLUTE RECITAL AT THE ASIAN SCHOOL, DEHRADUN.

A flute recital by Ace performer Pt. Ranarendranath Majumdar was organized at The Asian School, Dehradun on 25th August, 2018 as part of a SPICMACAY initiative to popularize Indian classical performing arts.

The renowned artist was accompanied by Mr. Durjay Bhowmik on Tabla and Kalpesh Sachala on flute.

The programme commenced with the presentation of bouquets to the eminent artists followed by lighting of the ceremonial lamp. The artists held the senior wing of the school spell bound with their magnificent performances. Pt. Ronu Majumdar, adopted an initiative approach with the students and established a wonderful rapport with them.

His rendition of the morning Raga 'Aadi Bhairav' and the song 'Jago Mohan Pyare' mesmerized all present. The music maestro was also gracious enough to answer questions put by the curious students of the school. The hour long programme concluded with 'Vandematram' before which he played Bengali folk music on demand of the students. This was followed by the presentation of souvenirs to the guests, by the Principal, Mr. A.K. Das. Present on the occasion were Headmistress, Ms. Kalpana Grover, the staff and the students. The programme was jointly compared by Ishita Srivastava and Ishita Saxena. The vote of thanks was proposed by Literary Secretary, Ishita Srivastava.
