

Press Release on Janmashtami Celebration at The Asian School

On August 23, 2019 boarding & day boarding students of The Asian School celebrated Janmashtami as a cultural event.

The role objective of Shri Krishna's birth was to free the earth from the evil demons. He took birth at dark hour to rill our lives with divine light.

The school celebrated the pious festival with all fervor and heightened spirits. There were several colourful performance presented by students from different hostels.

The junior boys and day boarding students presented a dance drama to mark how characters of Avengers related with the Mahabharata, Hindu Mythology. Tiny tots dressed as little Krishnas showcased a dance which brought the spirit of the festival.

Senior boys also presented a play titled – 'Naughty Krishna' to mark the mischievous phase of Shri Krishna. There was indeed a blend of enthusiasm, colour and gaiety when the Girls danced on to the rhythm leading the event into its extreme festivity! A beautiful dance was impeccably presented.

The programme was witnessed by Principal Sir, Vice Principal Sir, Head Middle School, Headmistress, Administration Manager, Activity Coordinator of the school and all distinguished guest.
